There is large number of instruments in this world. You can call instrument to anything but when someone talks about world instrument the first thing that comes to your mind is something about musical instruments. Musical instrument is one from which you can produce soothing music. For producing good sound you have to first learn the technique to play the musical instrument in which you are interested in.

You cannot say that who invented musical instruments. Even nobody knows it. But just keep a pressure on your mind and think that when you compare some instruments like flute you will get to know that these musical instruments must be originated from hollow trees. You can also take the example of drums in this case.

There is large number of musical instruments available in this world. Some of the most popular are Conga, Tabla, Sitar, Bagpipes, Gongs, Lute and Celtic Harp. New sounds can be developed using the musical instruments. Not only this you can also add new sounds to old music.

Conga is one with the height of 75 cm from ground. In this there are three or four hollow drums. The radius of each drum is greater than the previous one. Because of this difference different sounds can be produced. When these drums are played using fingers and palms in a particular manner, a musical sound is produced. You can play conga both by standing or sitting. Person who knows how to play conga is called conguero.

Tabla is famous for classical and religious music. There are two drums of different sizes that can be played with fingers and palms. Music is also produced on it when you apply pressure using heels of your hands.

Gong is famous in east and south east asia. It is also used in devotional and classical music. You can produce beautiful music from it by striking a flat metal plate with a mallet. There is other form of gong in which you can produce music by striking equally sized metal plates. You will find three types of gongs that are Suspended gongs, Bowl gongs and Bossed gongs. Gongs are widely used in Indian Devotional songs.

It is best if you buy musical instruments from internet. Just search on Google about the sites that work in this field and check which site is best.
