With tax time virtually on us, many of us are beginning to gather their tax documents together in preparation. And you can always tell the people who desire their tax returns back the most, because they are the ones filling out their returns in January! Ask any of these people what they have in mind for their cash, and you can bet that they already have it spent, at least in their heads!

With tax time almost on us, many of us are beginning to collect their tax documents together in preparation. And you can always tell the folks that desire their tax returns back the most, because they are the ones filling out their returns in January! Ask any of these folks what they have in mind for their money, and you can bet that they already have it spent, at least in their heads!

If you're one of these folk and have decided on using your money for a pleasant summer holiday, then you may want to read this list of the top three Keen mens shoes for a summer holiday. In fact , you will have some additional money, so why not buy them now?

Keen Sandal #1 : The Barbados in leather. The perfect blend of flip-flop and shoe, the Barbados features the patented toe protection that Keen sandals are so famous for, together with a microbe shield lining. Perfect for poolside or the beach, the Barbados is simple to slide on and off, and thanks to that microbe shield, stays odour free regardless of what your bare feet might track into them!

Keen Sandal #2 : The Saint Barts. Also made with Keen sandals patented toe protection, the Saint Barts gives a sturdier sandal that is just as easy to slip on or kick off. With its polyester webbing tops, these great comfortable sandals for women stay in place and are comfy all day 24x7, something that can't always be said for that flip-flop strap that goes between your toes! Which is why you need both - a flip-flop style ( like the Barbados ), and a sturdy slip-on style.

Keen Sandal #3 : The Newport H2. And last but not least, to have just the correct quantity of footwear for your summer vacation, you will need a pair of Keen sandals with a backbone. Or in the case of the Newport H2, a 'metatomical strap design' that goes round the back of your foot and keeps the sandal prepared. Ideal for walking in, the Newport will give you the breezy comfort of a sandal, and the support and comfort of a walking shoe. 2 things that are incredibly important for all summer activities, including vacations!
